Foodnow.tv

Foodnow.tv is an online restaurant and dining guide which enables users to look up restaurants by city, cuisine, delivery, plus listings by weekly specials, coupons and happy hours. There are also Sports Bars, Catering and Taverns sections and even a recipes section.

For only $25 per month you can have your restaurant featured in a bold logo listing linking patrons to your Foodnow.tv web pages that we create and maintain for you. The web pages feature your menus, hours of operation and photos.... You will be listed in all applicable categories... i.e. Italian, French, American, plus specials and even Recipes if you would like to share some of yours with our users. And of course catering if you offer catering platters / catering services.

Web Site Design

In order to have an online presence, one needs a website. Deciding on someone to build a website for you is a complicated and difficult task because there are many options, variables and price levels.

We at Foodnow.tv specialize in the restaurant industry and therefore use our specialized know-how to produce a website that will work best for a restaurant at a restaurant owner's budget.

For as little as $25 per month, you can have the website you need with all of your pertinent information including hours of operation, menu, wine list, restaurant photos, menu item photos and customer feedback email.

Other bells and whistles such as Flash Animation and Streaming video can be added and are quoted on an individual basis.

Web Site Hosting and Domain Name Registration

For those restaurants who wish a more individualized and sophisticated system we have the best rates on hosting and Domain name registration.

Video Production

We specialize in video production for restaurants that can be streamed online. For as little as $500 we will shoot and edit a 2 minute clip and imbed it onto your website so that online visitors will be able to get a real feel for what your restaurant is all about.

Cable Television Commercial Production and Advertising Packaging

We will produce a 30 second commercial for you to use on your local cable system; Adelphia, Cox / Time Warner. Cable is a highly cost effective medium to reach new customers. Most companies will charge around $2000 to create, shoot and edit a 30 second commercial we'll do it for $1000. Our production staff will create a very professional commercial for you and then we'll act as your agency in your media buy with your cable company of choice. Not only will you benefit from our production skills but our media buying expertise as well.

FOODNOW TV – Your Hometown Cooking Show

Our first installment of the hometown cooking show featured Casandra Epuna the owner and chef of New Orleans Café in Hermosa Beach and was a huge success! She received many new customers and her patrons loved it! Foodnow TV is a cooking show in which local restaurant chefs showcase their favorite recipes for the at home audience.

Our Foodnow TV package is our best value and is offered to Foodnow.tv restaurants only.

For only $2000 your restaurant will be featured for a 15 minute segment of our 30 minute show (two restaurants per episode) and as a bonus we will produce a 30 second commercial for you too!

The Foodnow TV episode in which you are featured will be aired once a week at prime time for 6 weeks on Adelphia channel 99, one up from the Food Network (channel 98.) Adelphia reaches 32,000 homes in Manhattan Beach, Hermosa and Redondo.
